

Construction Professionals Indemnity Proposal Form

AN IMPORTANT NOTICE TO THE APPLICANT - 'CLAIMS MADE' CONTRACTS OF INSURANCE

PLEASE READ AND RETAIN IN YOUR FILE

The proposed insurance is issued on a 'claims made' basis.
This means that the policy responds to: -

- ① Claims first made against the insured during the policy period and notified to Procover Underwriting Agency Pty Ltd during that policy period, providing that the insured was not aware, at any time prior to the policy inception, of circumstances which would have alerted a reasonable person in the insured's position that a claim may be made against the insured; and
- ② 'Claims circumstances' notified pursuant to Section 40 (3) of the Insurance Contracts Act which states:

'Where the insured gave notice in writing to the insurer of facts that might give rise to a claim against the insured as soon as was reasonable practicable after the insured became aware of those facts but before the insurance cover provided by the contract expired, the insurer is not relieved of liability under the contract in respect of the claim, when made, by reason only that it was made after the expiration of the period of insurance cover provide by the contract'

After policy expiry, no new claims can be made on the expired policy even though the event giving rise to the claim may have occurred during the policy period.

If during the policy period you become aware of circumstances which a reasonable person in your position would consider may give rise to a claim, and which you fail to notify us during the policy period, we may not cover you under a subsequent policy for any claim which arises from these circumstances.

When completing the proposal you are obliged to report and provide full details of all circumstances of which you are aware and which a reasonable person in your position would consider may give rise to a claim.

It is important that you make proper disclosure (see Duty of Disclosure, below) so that your cover under any new policy with us is not compromised.

Pursuant to the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 your duty to disclose all relevant information is set out below.

YOUR DUTY OF DISCLOSURE: -

Before you enter into a contract of insurance with an insurer, you have a duty, under the Insurance Contracts Act 1984, to disclose to the insurer every matter that you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, is relevant to the insurer's decision whether to accept the risk, and, if so, on what terms.

You have the same duty to disclose those matters to the insurer before you renew, extend, vary or reinstate a contract of insurance.

Your duty however, does not require the disclosure of matters:

- that diminishes the risk to be undertaken
- that is of common knowledge
- that your insurer knows, or in the ordinary course of his/her business, ought to know
- as to which compliance with your duty is waived by the insurer

Please note: Your duty of disclosure continues after the proposal form has been completed until the policy is entered into - i.e. until the date we receive instructions to bind cover.

Furthermore, please note that information contained in your website is not considered to satisfy your duty of disclosure and all material facts regarding the risk should be disclosed in the proposal form.

NON-DISCLOSURE

If you fail to comply with your duty of disclosure, the insurer may be entitled to reduce liability under the contract in respect of a claim or may cancel the contract.

If your non-disclosure is fraudulent, the insurer may also have the option of avoiding the contract from its beginning.

PRIVACY

Lloyd's and its agent are bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 as amended by the Privacy Amendment (Private Sector) Act 2000 (the Act). This sets out the basic standards relating to the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information.

Personal Information is essentially information or an opinion about a living individual whose identity is apparent or can reasonably be ascertained from the information or opinion. Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly. Only information necessary for the arrangement and administration of Lloyd's business by Lloyd's, its agents and their representatives will be collected. This includes information necessary to accept the risk, to assess a claim, to determine competitive and appropriate premiums.

Lloyd's and its agents disclose personal information to third parties who they believe are necessary to assist them in doing. These parties will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (or if required by law).

When you give Lloyd's and its agents personal information about other individuals, we rely on you to have made or make them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access your information if you wish and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by Lloyd's by contacting Procover Underwriting Agency Pty Ltd on 02 9307 6600.

RETROACTIVE LIABILITY

The proposed insurance may be limited by a retroactive date either stated in the schedule or endorsed onto the policy. Where the retroactive cover by the proposed policy is subject to such date, then the policy does not cover any claim arising from any actual or alleged act, error, omission or conduct occurring prior to such retroactive date.
